in cooperation with

Bay City Players presents

All My Sons

"All My Sons", by Arthur Miller, Arthur Miller's great American drama set after WWII still touches the very soul of Americans at war. When is it OK for people to profit from their country at war? How long do you wait for those who are missing in action? How does an American family faced with these questions find the right answers?

So, good it has been made into two movies and had a big Broadway revival, 2008. You'll be fascinated.

Tony Award Winner for Best Play, 1947.
