Livestock Show... Head to Toe

This goes for Auction too

- ★ Hair: Make sure your hair is neat and not distracting. Long hair should be pulled back and away from your face.
- ★ Jewelry: Don't forget to take off jewelry, especially earrings and bracelets that could get caught on halters, rabbit nails, etc.
- ★ Shirts: Your shirt needs to be neat, clean and tucked in. DO NOT WEAR T-SHIRTS! If you are showing animals that have sharp nails make sure you wear long sleeves, even if it's hot. Your shirt should have a collar; although it's not required. Make sure it's not too tight, loose, low cut or revealing anything- especially the midriff.
- ★ Hands: Make sure you groom your hands. Take off any nail polish that isn't clear. Remove all dirt from under the nails.
- ★ Pants: Dark pants are required unless you are showing a dairy animal, then you wear white pants. Jeans are fine, but they must be a dark denim. Pants should not be tight, loose, or have any holes. No cargo pants.
- ★ Shoes: Leather boots are the best to wear in the show ring when working with large animals, although any type of boot is acceptable. Boots prevent injury the best. Tennis shoes are okay for small animal showmanship including rabbits, water fowl, and poultry. There should be NO SANDALS OR OPEN TOE SHOES.
