Correspondence: The judge for the Shaggy Spring Fling, Allison Walker, sent a letter asking for our opinion of her which was decided to be positive. Everyone liked how well she interacted with the kids and she was very easy to work with. Jodi W. will respond to Allison with our positive feedback.

Also a letter from Jodi Schultz was read to the council detailing March through June account balances. As of July 1, 2009, all books balanced and are in an orderly manner for new treasurer.

Superintendent Comments:

Thank you to Joann Jasman for becoming superintendent!

Joann J. asked if 4-H was following fair board rules during fair concerning western riding. No rules in state 4-H rules for helmet during Western riding so they may sign a waiver if they (or parent if under 18) decide not to, but 4-H rules state that all cloverbuds must wear a helmet.

Joann also asked if she had to run the Tuesday and Saturday shows at fair. These shows are run by the barn superintendent – need volunteers for announcing and gates. Brenda Mills offered to help as well as others who will be there. Patty Huddy might be available to ring steward.

Jodi's comments:

The fair is going to be awesome! Look at the Clover Chatter for info about it!

And yes; the rumor is true, Jodi is expecting again! Congratulations!

Meeting adjourned at 7:45pm. Ben Phillips made the motion, Nicole Wilson seconded. Motion was carried.
