ROMANTIC GETAWAY

Memories To Last A Lifetime

ELK VIEWING CARRIAGE RIDE, GOURMET DINNER & WINE TASTING EVENT

This memorable event includes a charming horse-drawn carriage ride through the woods into Anchor Creek Elk Preserve to see majestic bull elk, but that is only the beginning. Then it's onto the Elk Antler Log Cabin where culinary artist Jan Matthias prepares an outstanding five course gourmet dinner before you on antique wood cookstoves. The wine tasting is woven throughout dinner, allowing you to sample six varieties of wine produced locally at Stoney Acres Winery. Following dinner, it's back aboard the carriages for the return trip to the resort. The summer event boasts bulls with their large antlers in velvet. September through October promises beautiful fall colors and very active bulls displaying their mating rituals. With winter's snowy covering it becomes a cozy horse-drawn sleigh ride.

to the 2006-2007 Farm Market, U-Pick & Agricultural Tourism Directory.

This is your guide to locally grown and produced fresh and processed Michigan products.

When is the last time you wandered through greenhouses filled with all the colors of the rainbow, or bit into a juicy apple, fresh off the tree? How about a wintertime trek through row upon snow-covered row of Christmas trees, looking for the one that's "just right"? Well, now's the time! Come taste and experience Michigan's bounty at its best, all year long!

For information about other agricultural tourism opportunities in Michigan, including farm markets, U-pick operations, festivals, fairs, wineries, horse racing and much more, visit Michigan.gov/agtourism.

Additional vacation information and travel ideas are available at the official state of Michigan travel site:

PURE MICHIGAN
Your trip begins at michigan.org

1-800-729-9375
WWW.THUNDERBAYRESORT.COM

Gathering your own fruits and vegetables at Michigan farms, orchards and markets is a delightful way to experience our countryside.

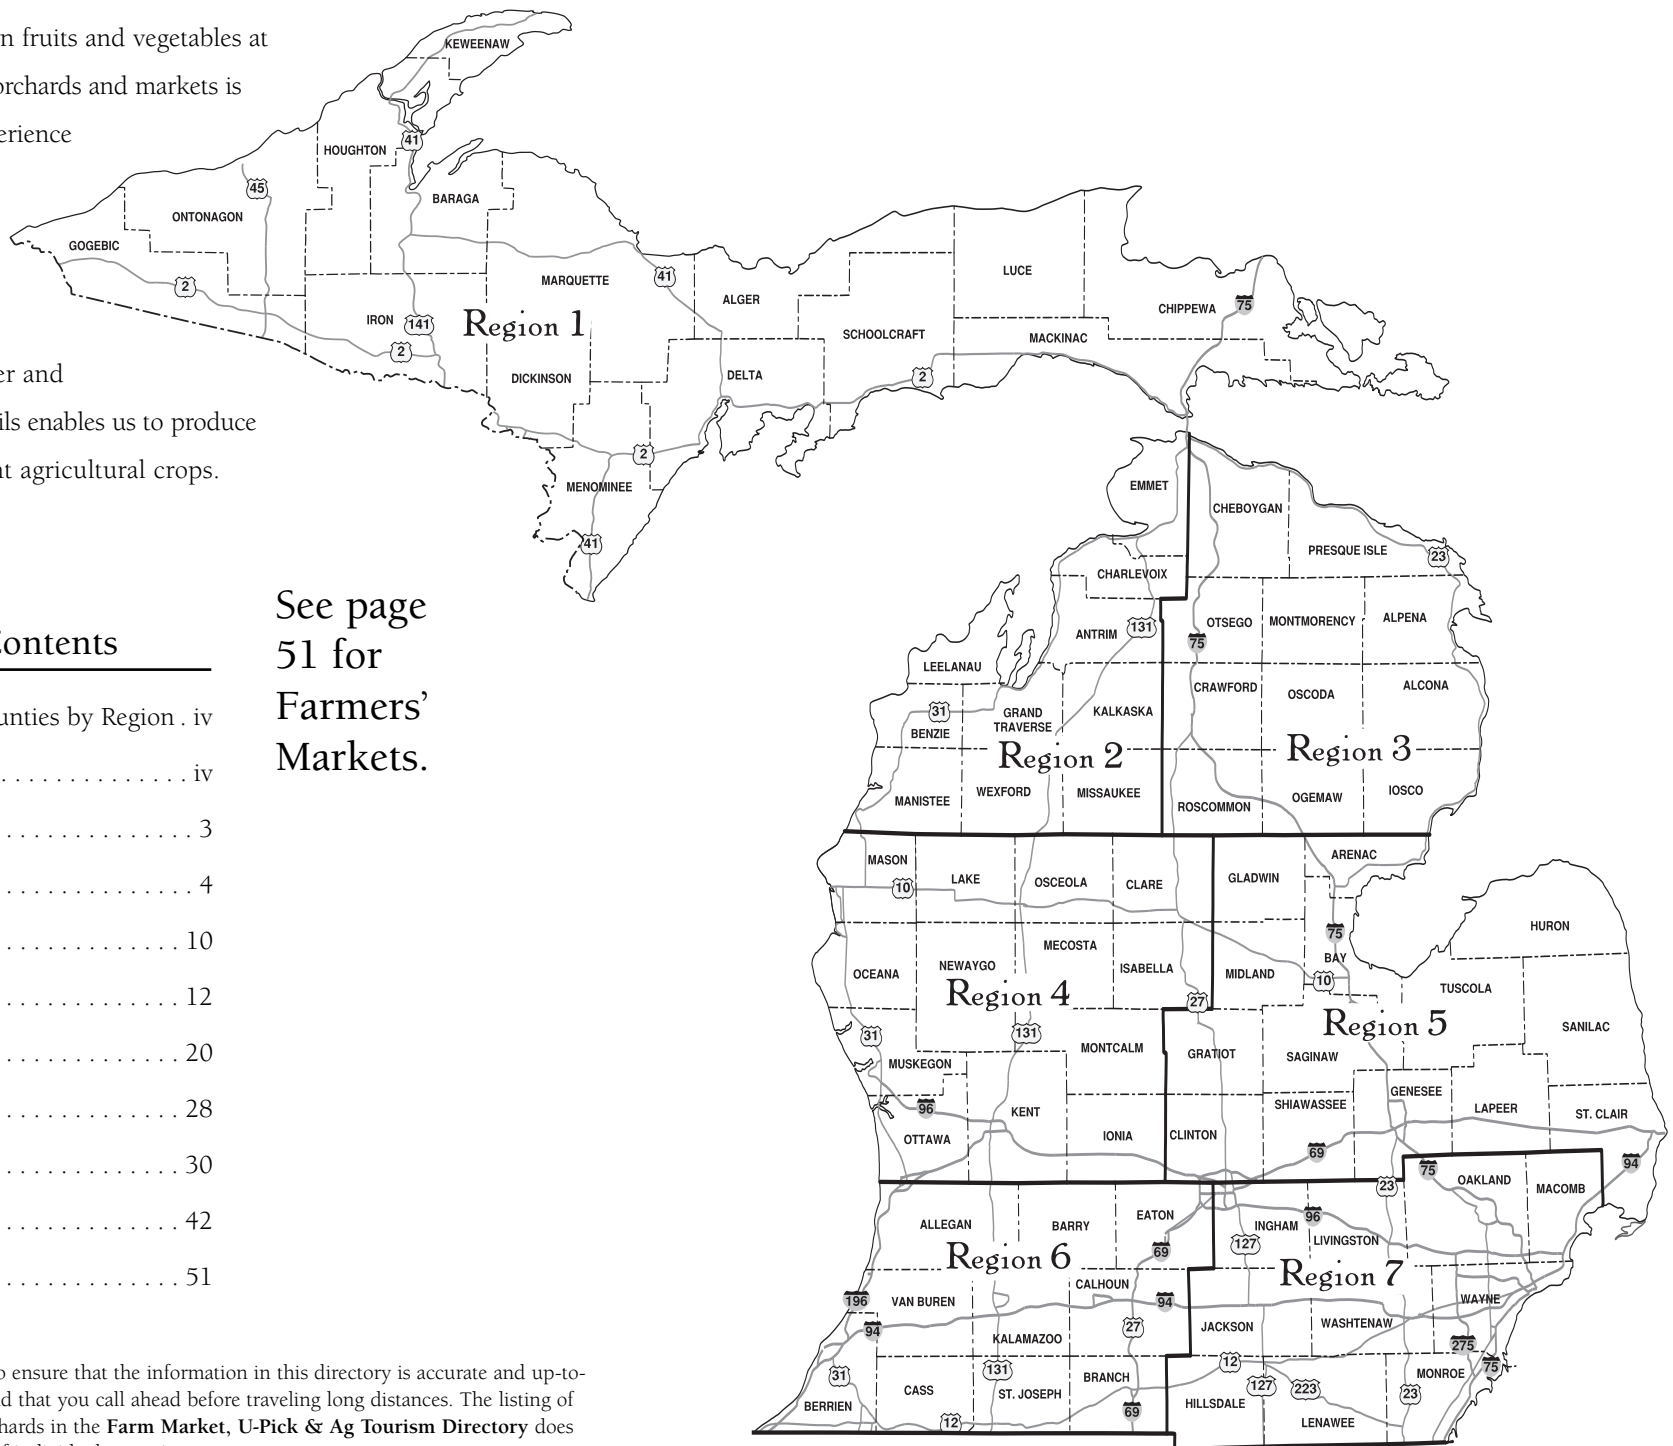

Michigan's unique combination of coastal climate, abundant water and exceptionally diverse soils enables us to produce more than 200 different agricultural crops.

Michigan has a reputation for safe, high quality, fresh and wholesome foods. Buying and eating locally grown food helps support the local economy, strengthen Michigan's family farms and agribusinesses, and preserve our state's rich agricultural heritage.

Look for the Select Michigan logo on Michigan grown and processed products in your local grocery store, and visit a Michigan farmers' market or farm market as you travel across the state. Not only will you taste the bounty of Michigan at its freshest - you will also be doing your part to support a healthy, sustainable and local food system. This in turn helps keep farming an affordable way of life for future generations.
