A Little Murder Never Hurt Anybody

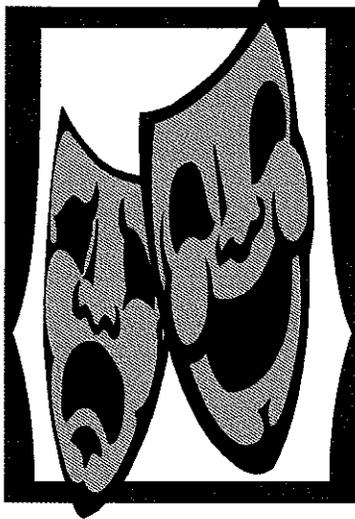

"A Little Murder Never Hurt Anybody", by Ron Bernas, is a homage to the screwball comedies of the 1930's and 1940's. Matthew vows to kill off Julia before the end of the year. But Julia will have none of that nonsense and remains alive at all costs. However, their friends start dropping like flies. And so the game begins - a hilarious year-long match of wits and the witless. Enter Detective Plotnik - A Sam

Spade reincarnation who suspects everyone, but hasn't a clue. Directed by: Tina Sills
