

Bay County Division on Aging
in coordination with Bay City Players (presents)

The Best Man

It's Philadelphia. It's the 1960's and two men are seeking their party's nomination for president. But wait, are dirty politics unfolding right before our very eyes? Indeed, they are! "The more things change, the more they remain the same." Enjoy this back-stage view of back-stabbing, crooked deals, and all that makes political life worth living. Great characters, great plot and great drama are all in this play that won six Tony nominations and became an all-star movie.

This event is limited in space. Get your tickets in early. Suitable for all ages.
